be any evidence in the medical records of torture and it appears more likely that the plaintiff was suffering from delusions brought on by his illness or manufacturing symptoms for secondary gain. However, even if the Plaintiff were given substantial leeway in his failure to meet his burden of persuasion that he will likely succeed on the merits, the Plaintiff cannot produce any evidence that irreparable harm will result if an injunction is not granted.

B. There is no evidence that denial of an injunction will result in irreparable harm to the Plaintiff.

As the medical records and Affidavit of Dr. Cannuli demonstrate, the Plaintiff continues to be monitored, evaluated, and treated for various diagnoses, including schizophrenia and bi-polar disorder. As of July 19, 2007, the Plaintiff has agreed to be

THEY NEW WHAT MY NEEDS WHERE INSTEAD THEY THE MED VENDORS RAPE MY BRAIN AND BODY!
This is AND WAS my disorder BEFORE going TO D.C. AND THE DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS
AND THERE MED VENDORS

Attached as exhibit K are the Plaintiff's Medication Administration Records from June 2006 to July 19, 2007 that indicate the Plaintiff was prescribed medications which include, HCTZ, MVI, Nitroglycerin Patch, Plendil, Colace, Lopid, Ditropan, Seroquel, Lithium, Ativan, Inderal, Prolosec and Ointment for dry skin. On July 19, 2007, Dr. Cannuli examined the Plaintiff and observed that the Plaintiff appeared to be decompensating and that the Plaintiff admitted to not always taking his medication because it made him feel funny. See July 19, 2007 Psychiatric Progress Note attached as exhibit J. The Plaintiff has since confirmed with Dr. Cannuli that he will be compliant with taking his medication. See affidavit of Dr. Cannuli attached as exhibit B.

The Plaintiff's recent court filings of July 20, 2007 (DI 65) wherein the Plaintiff
